

The UN Secretary- General's UNiTE to End Violence against Women Campaign invited governments, UN agencies, civil society organizations and individuals from all countries of the world to mark the days between 25 November and the 10 December (the 16 Days of Activism) by coming together to step up efforts to end violence against women and girls but on the other days too, TO ORANGE THE WORLD. Wearing orange, decorating with the orange color and generally making ORANGE prominent in the community with orange events. Show the world you care!
Drape the town orange - wear orange - use orange everywhere you can!
